SPENCER'S SPOTLIGHT:

RACE 6

#9 IN THE CHAMBER ran well enough when a distant third behind a couple of tough customers in that stake at Hawthorne, but the move back to the turf should work in his favor, as he has been razor-sharp on the grass in recent runs and should get the coziest of trips from close range. #3 ITALIAN CHARM has some excuses for his last two, as he was in stakes company off the claim two back and wore blinkers last out. The hood comes off as he drops back in for the claiming price. #8 RANSACK goes first off the Brad Cox claim, and while he should find the front, his best stuff still feels little light compared to what some of these have to offer. #5 GHURAIR is a reliable finisher who can land a piece and might be worth covering on deeper multi-race plays.
