SPENCER'S SPOTLIGHT:

RACE 9

#4 HANIEL drew a tough post last time out and still made short work of a big field in the debut. She was rating herself nicely on the front end that day, so I'm not worried about her getting into a pace battle, and if she moves forward second time out, she's going to be tough with these. #3 FAULT ran well on the grass in her debut, and she comes out of a tough route allowance won by a next-out stakes winner. #5 RUM GO was coming off the layoff when third behind the super talented Stallion Heiress, but I still expected her to run a little bit better than that. #8 SHES TRICKEY handled the grass in Kentucky earlier in her career, and she comes out of a fairly solid stakes race at Delta.
