SPENCER'S SPOTLIGHT:

RACE 2

#7 JUS KEVIN probably has a pretty good excuse for her flat race two starts back, as she failed to show up and then went to the bench for more than eight months. She proved she hadn't lost it with a nice comeback score last out and can handle this group right back. #8 INVENIAM VIAM was second in a race where the winner was getting a huge class drop after having run in open stakes company, and without a horse like that in here, she should be tough. #4 MAJOR ASHWORTH is certainly capable of better than what she showed off the bench, and #9 MY QUEEN OLIVIA is still lightly raced and probably has some upside here.
